

Coffee Vending Machine

Dharmay - K
IBM18CSD027

Problem Statement

A coffee vending machine that dispenses coffee to users after selecting the coffee and completing payment.

System Requirement Specification

functional Requirements

- The system can only be accessed by anyone with visual and touch capabilities.
- The system displays a menu containing the various products offered by the machine.
- The system has a built in payment interface for accepting payments and generating bills.
- The system dispenses the selected product on completion of payment.

Non-functional Requirements:

- The system should be easy to handle.
- System should give expected result.
- The response time should be small.
- The database should be secure.